

2007/2008 Vocational Resources in San Francisco Working with SF ILSP

Programs & Contact Info	Vocational and Other Services	Eligibility and Application	Who should apply?
Asian Neighborhood Design Contact: 415-575-0423 x201 www.andnet.org	Construction training; job hunting, after school programs, childcare, case management, subsidized housing support	17 years old or older, San Francisco resident, low income, 6 th grade level in math and English. Youth must apply directly to the program.	Youth and young adults interested in the construction trades
Enterprise for High School Students Contact: 415-392-7600 x1 www.ehss.org	School-to-work career development and training, job placement	9th through 12th grade, no specific age requirement. Youth must apply directly to program.	All San Francisco High School Students interested in working and improving their job readiness skills.
HSA One Stop & Career Link Centers Contact: 415-401-4803 www.onestopsf.org	Job referrals, career and job skills assessment, vocational workshops, career library, connection to businesses and community resources and government resources; computer and self-service materials	At least 16 years old. Youth must have a social security card and California ID. Referrals to the One Stop can come from ILSP, Child Welfare Workers, caregivers, and/or youth walk-ins.	Youth interested in accessing vocational resources
Independent Living Skills Program - Japanese Community Youth Council Contact: 415-934-4205 www.ilsp.org	Paid internship opportunities, vocational workshops, one-on-one counseling; tutoring, mentoring, life skills classes, case management, educational counseling, enrichment activities, drop-in center	14-21 years old, current or former foster youth, probation youth in out-of-home placement	Current and emancipated foster youth and eligible probation youth
Jewish Vocational Services Contact: 415-782-6279 www.jvs.org	Youth Employment and Transition Programs provide work readiness preparation, paid internships and work experiences, career exploration, computer skills training, post-secondary educational counseling, individual employment services, access to employers, transition planning and case management support.	14-24 years old, San Francisco resident or SFUSD student, with a verified disability (learning, emotional/mental health, physical). Documentation can include IEP (Individualized Education Plan), mental health diagnosis, Medi-Cal. Youth may contact JVS directly or be referred through a teacher, counselor or other service provider.	Youth and young adults with mild to moderate disabilities (primarily learning and mental health), able to use public transportation and work independently.
Jobs for Youth Contact: 415-861-5627 www.jobsforyouth.net	Vocational assessment, counseling, job placement, training placement	16-21 years old, resident of San Francisco. Youth must apply directly to the program.	Motivated job-ready youth between the ages of 16-21.
Juma Ventures Contact: 415-371-0727 x312 www.jumaventures.org	Part-time employment, on-the-job training, business enterprise training, financial planning, college and career workshops, life skills preparation	Must live in SF, Daly City or Oakland, be in high school, be at least 16 years of age by April 15, and have a 2.0 GPA. 10 slots allotted to foster youth. Hiring done prior to baseball season (Oct-Feb).	Ideal for low income youth looking for basic job skills, a part-time job, and who are considering post-secondary education. IDA program ideal for youth who want to save for college, buy a house or start their own business.
Hire Up - Larkin Street Youth Services Contact: 415-673-0911 x240 www.larkingstreetyouht.org	Computer training, employment training and counseling, job placement, academic support and counseling, transitional housing program, shelter services	16-23 years old and current or former foster youth. Program also serves homeless youth. Youth are referred once they enter the transitional housing program. Youth can also walk-in.	Runaway and homeless youth and young adults.

2007/2008 Vocational Resources in San Francisco Working with SF ILSP

Programs & Contact Info	Vocational and Other Services	Eligibility and Application	Who should apply?
Mayor's Youth Employment and Education Program (MYEEP) - Japanese Community Youth Council Contact: 415-202-7903 www.myeeep.org	Neighborhood-based paid work experience opportunities and transition support provided by MYEEP Agencies. Youth leadership training, life skills, career and postsecondary education workshops.	14-17 years old, live in San Francisco, enrolled in middle school, high school, or GED program, and legally eligible to work in the United States. Youth complete applications and submit it to one of eleven MYEEP sites	High school youth interested in work experience
Mission Safe Haven - Arriba Juntos Contact: 415-551-1964 www.aribajuntos.org	Safe Heaven Program prepares youth for adulthood by improving their self-image and quality of life through access to employment services, case management services, educational enrichment and educational support.	11-18 years old and involved or at risk of being involved with the juvenile justice system. Youth must apply directly to the program.	Spanish speaking monolingual youth
New Directions Employment Program (NDEP) - Japanese Community Youth Council Contact: 415-202-7903 www.myeeep.org	Neighborhood-based paid work experience opportunities and transition support provided by NDEP Agencies. Life skills, career and postsecondary education workshops.	14-18 years old, live in San Francisco, enrolled in middle school, high school, or GED program, and legally eligible to work in the United States. Youth complete applications and submit to one of nine NDEP Agencies or Focus Vocational Program.	High school youth on probation interested in work experience
San Francisco Conservation Corps Contact: 415-928-7417 x313 www.sfcc.org	Job readiness and academic training program for young adults. SFCC provides on the job training implementing community service projects such as playground renovations, landscaping and recycling services. Also operates high school diploma program, career preparation classes, as well post program support.	San Francisco resident ages 18 - 26 years of age. No previous work experience required. Young adults who do not have a High School Diploma are strongly encouraged to apply.	San Francisco Residents 18 -26 years old.
San Francisco YouthWorks - Japanese Community Youth Council Contact: (415) 202-7911 www.SFYouthWorks.org	YouthWorks provides paid career oriented internships in city government departments. In addition to their internship, participants receive ongoing support and training through pre-employment and Career Development Workshops. In addition, youth can also participate in the YouthWorks Youth Leadership Team and attend other fun events and activities.	San Francisco residents who are in the 10 th , 11 th , or 12 th grades at a San Francisco high school. All participants also must make at least a 1 session commitment and be able to work a minimum of 5 (school year) or 10 (summer) hours per week. YouthWorks uses a competitive application process where all youth who submit within the application period are considered for participation. Applications are accepted 3 times per year (Sept, Jan, and May)	Youth interested in exploring a career and gaining some basic job skills. Youth who have time available from Mon-Fri during normal business hours and are comfortable working in an office environment.
Treasure Island Job Corps Contact: 415-277-2400 www.treasureisland.jobcorps.gov	Vocational training, job placement, vocational certification	16-24 years old, Low Income, US Citizen or Permanent Resident. Youth must apply directly to the program.	Youth interested in specific vocations
Workreation - San Francisco Parks & Recreation	Paid internship opportunity to work in Parks and Recreation offices and programs	14-17 years old and live in San Francisco or go to school in San Francisco or parent/guardian works in San Francisco. Youth must apply directly to the program.	High school youth interested in job experience related to parks and recreation

2007/2008 Vocational Resources in San Francisco
Working with SF ILSP

Youth Build – Glide Contact: 415-674-6185 www.glide.org	9-month pre apprenticeship construction and educational training program in partnership with the John Muir Charter School, the educational program enables the students to high school curriculum, CSHEE Prep, and GED Prep.	Low income youth from the greater Bay Area from the ages from 16-24 years old.	Youth and young adults interested in the union trades. High school dropouts encouraged to apply.
---	---	---	---